

Delft Blue – A vase for the princess is a title in the series art picturebooks by Leopold in cooperation with the GEMEENTE MUSEUM DEN HAAG Gemeentemuseum Den Haag Stadhouderslaan 41, Den Haag
www.gemeentemuseum.nl

Available in Dutch:

Meneer Kandinsky was een schilder / Mister Kandinsky was a painter
Keepvogel en Kijkvogel – In het spoor van Mondriaan / Coppernickel goes Mondrian
Ensor – De grote maskerade / Ensor – The big masquerade
Nacht in het poppenhuis / A night in the doll's house
Calder – De draad van Alexander / Calder – Alexander's wire
Delfts Blauw – Een vaas voor de prinses / Delft Blue – A vase for the princess
Een zondag met Caillebotte / A Sunday with Caillebotte
Coco of het kleine zwarte jurkje / Coco, or the little black dress

Second edition 2014

Copyright © Ingrid & Dieter Schubert 2012

All rights reserved

Translated by Jan Michael

Book design Studio Bos

Uitgeverij Leopold | www.leopold.nl

NUR 273 | ISBN 978 90 258 6418 7

Leopold Publishers print their books on FSC®-certified paper.

That way we help preserve valuable old forests.

Ingrid & Dieter Schubert

Delft Blue

A vase for the princess

Leopold Amsterdam | Gemeentemuseum Den Haag

The big ships are back from their long journey to far-off lands, bearing spices from India and chests full of porcelain from China...
Once everything has been unloaded on to a barge, Lin appears.
He has travelled the whole world as a stowaway, looking for his friend.

He climbs high up the mast and looks about, curiously.
What odd-looking houses! He's never seen any like these before.
奇异小国! he thinks.